

Monkfish Book Publishing Company
22 East Market Street, Suite 304
Rhinebeck, New York 12572
845.876.4861
monkfishpublishing.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 24, 2024

“Daisy Khan is one of the most prominent Muslim voices in America and an icon of female empowerment across the globe.” -Reza Aslan

A comprehensive guide to a woman’s rights in Islam

The most effective way to improve the lives of Muslim women is to teach them the core values of dignity and equality inherent to Islam. They often don’t have access to this knowledge, which both clarifies and validates their sacred rights. 30 Rights of Muslim Women demonstrates how Islam, and its law, uphold women’s rights. The book enables women to express their rights within Islam and confront Islamophobia by showcasing Islam’s supports for women’s agency.

30 Rights of Muslim Women: A Trusted Guide (Paperback original; ISBN 978-1958972335; US $29.99) publishes on May 21, 2024.

“A comprehensive compendium on women in Islam, providing readers with an encyclopedic reference to the most pressing of topics. Easy to follow and accessible.” —His Eminence Imam Dr. Mohamad Jebara, former Chief Imam, and author of The Life of the Quran

“Dr. Daisy Khan meticulously illustrates that through the Qur’an, Hadith, and Islamic scholarship faith and gender equality can be achieved.” —Mehnaz M. Afridi, PhD, professor of religious studies, Manhattan College

“This book should be front and center on the shelves of Muslim girls, Muslim women leaders, Muslim women who should be leaders, Muslim men who are leaders, and Muslim men who should learn from Muslim women how to follow.” —Swanee Hunt, founder of the Women and Public Policy Program, Harvard Kennedy School

Monkfish Book Publishing Company
22 East Market Street, Suite 304
Rhinebeck, New York 12572
845.876.4861

"As a religious woman, I consider 30 Rights of Muslim Women an essential read for anyone who cares about religion today." —Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum, senior rabbi, Congregation Beit Simchat Torah, NYC

*For author interviews, media review copies:
Jon Sweeney, religion editor, jon@monkfishpublishing.com*

Daisy Khan inspires people to engage in transformative thinking and action, guiding them toward peacebuilding, countering extremism, and redefining Muslim women's leadership in the twenty-first century. A trailblazer and bridge-builder, Khan uses ideas to address seemingly insurmountable issues and challenges.

She is the founder of the Women's Islamic Initiative in Spirituality and Equality (WISE), the largest global network of Muslim women committed to peacebuilding, gender equality, and human dignity. For two decades she's been combating anti-Muslim bias and is renowned as a thought leader on Muslim women's rights.

On the tenth anniversary of 9/11, Khan was featured in Time magazine along with forty prominent people defining "what it means to meet adversity, and then overcome it." Her previous book is a memoir, Born with Wings: The Spiritual Journey of a Modern Muslim Women, published by Random House in 2018.

Khan lectures often at businesses, schools, and think tanks including The Council on Foreign Relations, Aspen Institute, and Bloomberg in recent years. She is a frequent media commentator on CNN, MSNBC, ABC, PBS, and the BBC. She lives in New York City.